Show Rules and Information

Day stalls are limited and available for $30. This does not include shavings or cleanup. Haul-in fee and non-showing horse fee is $15 per horse. All stalls, trailer-in areas and barn areas must be clean upon departure or you will not be eligible for a stall again. Please reserve your stalls ASAP as they fill quickly. Current negative coggins is required for all horses trailering in. SEI approved helmets with safety harness must be worn by ALL riders at all times, including warmup (anyone not complying with helmet rules will be asked to leave immediately.) Safe footgear (boots) required for all classes, and all riders must dress appropriately for weather. Formal attire is not required, but is suggested. Basic rosettes are awarded for 1-6 place.

All entries received after closing date must pay late fees (+$5 a class)

Additional fun classes may be added by show management, and will be announced at the show and online.

Classes may be combined, split or altered as show management deems necessary. In the case of scratched entries, entries may be refunded, minus $20 processing fee ONLY BEFORE the closing date - a week before date of show.

After the closing date (and on day of show) classes will NOT be refunded.
